

Dreaming of Starting Your Own Business?

This program may be for you!

This program is designed to assist persons with disabilities to explore the idea of self employment, with the ultimate goal of starting their own small business.

To be eligible for our program, participants must:

- self identify as having a disability (no medical documentation is required),
- not be eligible to collect employment insurance or be reach back;
- be a Canadian resident and
- working no more than 20 hours per week, if employed

If this is you...read on...

There is no financial assistance provided while taking the program and we do not provide loans – we would assist the client in preparing to approach a potential lender, if necessary

The program includes:

- The development of a business plan: conducting market research (market survey), research on the industry, industry trends and industry outlook, detailed marketing plan, analysis of the competition, identifying target markets, cash flow statements and more.
- Self esteem and self confidence: ways to build self esteem and self confidence, dealing with stress, attitude, professionalism and more
- Assist in obtaining a viability assessment from an independent consultant
- Mentoring support: once the business has been determined viable we assist with start up operations which could include but is not limited to: registering the business, obtaining necessary licensing, implementing the marketing plan and problem solving and more.
