

MULTIFAMILY MARKET OVERVIEW

LYLE CHAMBERLAIN, President

The rising population of the region has fueled a huge construction boom of multifamily units here for quite some time. However, the number of units has finally caught-up with the demand, suggesting a slower growth cycle going forward. There has been a slight increase in the vacancy rates, however, if construction slows just a bit, that should not be a problem. Good jobs and a great location will keep the economy moving forward, but look for modest growth as opposed to rampant growth in the coming months.
