

RETAIL MARKET OVERVIEW

JUSTIN ROSS, M.P.S./R.E., Vice President

The retail sector's workforce challenges during the pandemic are gradually improving. The widespread "hiring" signs have notably decreased, indicating a positive trend. Notably, the leisure and hospitality industry has consistently shown higher hiring rates since November 2020, surpassing the national average. To attract and retain talent, savvy businesses are offering extensive benefits like paid leave and healthcare coverage. They're also creating clear career paths and utilizing immigration programs to sponsor permanent employees. Retail's recent success in real estate is credited to innovative approaches by owners in securing skilled and hospitable staff. This positive shift benefits consumers, property owners, employees, and the broader market landscape alike.
