

OFFICE MARKET OVERVIEW

ZACH GELLER, Associate Research Director

Tenants in Chicago's office market continue to scrutinize their space requirements, shifting worker demand and driving up the amount of available space. A near record of 99.0 million SF of space, 19.5% of total inventory, is available in Chicago, an increase of approximately 25 million SF. Sublet availability rate is on the rise, posting another record high of 2.4%, or 12.2 million SF. It is also being observed that many employers are letting their lease obligations expire, with no thoughts about moving their stakes elsewhere. Chicago's overall vacancy rate now stands at 16.4%-a record high-and move-outs are still outpacing move-ins, with -5.5 million SF of negative absorption recorded over the past 12 months.
